GENERAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. Report to the Department of Corrections Probation Office on the next business day following the date of sentencing, or, if time is to be served prior to probation, report to the Department of Corrections Probation Office on the next business day following release from an institution.
2. Secure the prior written permission of a probation officer of the Department of Corrections before changing employment or residence or leaving the region of residence to which assigned.
3. Make a reasonable effort to secure and maintain steady employment. Should you become unemployed, notify a probation officer of the Department of Corrections as soon as possible.
4. Report in person between the first day and the tenth day of each month, or as otherwise directed, to your assigned officer of the Department of Corrections. Complete in full a written report when your probation officer is out of the office to insure credit for that visit. You may not report by mail unless you secure prior permission to do so from your probation officer.
5. At no time have under your control a concealed weapon, a firearm, or a switchblade or gravity knife.
6. Do not knowingly associate with a person who is on probation or parole or a person who has a record of a felony conviction unless prior written permission to do so has been granted by a probation officer of the Department of Corrections.

7. Make a reasonable effort to support your legal dependents.
8. Do not consume intoxicating liquor to excess.
9. Comply with all municipal, state and federal laws.
10. Report all purchases, sales and trades of motor vehicles belonging to you, together with current motor vehicle license numbers for those vehicles, to your probation officer.
11. Upon the request of a probation officer, submit to a search of your person, personal property, residence or any vehicle in which you may be found for the presence of contraband.
12. Abide by any special instructions given by the court or any of its duly authorized officers, including probation officers of the Department of Corrections.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF PROBATION

1. The defendant, while in custody and if offered by the department of Corrections, enter and successfully complete a Sex Offender Treatment Program. Recommend Lemon Creek Correctional Center.
2. The defendant shall actively participate in and successfully complete an approved sex offender treatment program as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant is not to discontinue treatment without the written approval of the Probation Officer and treatment provider.
3. The defendant shall not have any contact or communication with the victim or victim's family without prior written approval of the Probation Officer. Contact includes written correspondence, taped conversation, telephone contact, or any communication through a third party.
4. The defendant shall not accept employment or engage in any volunteer community activity that involves unsupervised contact with minors under the age of eighteen.
5. The defendant shall not knowingly have any in-person contact with a person under 18 years of age unless in the immediate presence of another adult who knows the circumstances of her crime, and the defendant receives written approval by the Probation Officer for the contact to occur in the presence of the specified adult.
6. The defendant shall not reside in a dwelling in which a person under the age of 18 years is residing or staying, without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.

- 7. The defendant shall advise all members of the household in which she is residing of her criminal history, even when her residence is temporary.
- 8. The defendant shall register as a sex offender: (a) within seven days of release from an in-state correctional facility; (b) within seven days of being physically present in the state after serving a term of incarceration in an out-of-state facility.
- 9. The defendant shall register in person at the Alaska State Trooper post or municipal police department located nearest to where defendant resides at the time of registration.
- 10. At registration, defendant shall provide defendant's name, address, place of employment, date of birth, each conviction for a sex offense for which the duty to register has not terminated under AS 12.63.020, date of sex offense convictions, place and court of sex offense convictions, all aliases used, and driver's license number. A complete set of fingerprints and a photograph will be taken at the time and place of registration.
- 11. Within 10 days of changing residence within the state after having registered, defendant shall provide written notice of the change to the Alaska State Trooper post or municipal police department nearest to the new residence.
- 12. Defendant shall register each year, on a date set by the state at the initial registration, for as many years as defendant has a duty to register under AS 12.63.020.

THE PROBATION HEREBY ORDERED EXPIRES November 2, 2003.
