SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of: TEN (10) YEARS.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of commencement of supervision and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter but no more than 8 valid drug tests per month during the term of supervision.

   [✔] The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check if applicable.)

4. [ ] You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (Check if applicable.)
5. [✔] You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (Check if applicable)
6. [✔] You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location you reside, work, are a , or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (Check if applicable)
7. [ ] You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (Check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any additional conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of the time you are released, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when to report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by the probation officer. Your legitimate invocation of the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination in response to a probation officer's question shall not be considered a violation of this condition.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or who lives with you, you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time reasonable under the circumstances at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit, to the extent you are able or authorized to do so, the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that the officer observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment, you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or if there are substantial changes to your job responsibilities, you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. Unless you have received advance permission from the probation officer or the association is required by supervision conditions, you must not voluntarily and intentionally associate with any person you know is engaged in committing a federal, state, or local crime, not including traffic offenses, whether the crime is being committed in or outside of your presence. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921(a)(4), or dangerous weapon (that is, anything that was designed or was modified for the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person, such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to an organization or a person relating to your criminal record or personal history or characteristics, the probation officer may require, with the court's approval, that you notify that organization or person (or that person's parent, guardian, caretaker, or other individual responsible for the person's welfare) about the risk, and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the organization or person that you were directed to notify and confirm that you notified that organization or person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation Officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

1. Restitution of $3,000 is due to MV1. Any unpaid balance is to be paid during the period of supervision in monthly installments of 10% of your gross monthly income, commencing 30 days after the start of supervision. The court may order that this requirement be changed from time to time as your circumstances warrant, but no court order shall be required for your voluntary agreement to pay more than the court-ordered amount. Interest is waived while you are serving any term of imprisonment and shall begin accruing on any remaining balance commencing 30 days after the start of supervision. Payments must be made by payroll deduction, when applicable. You must notify the probation officer of any change in your financial circumstances that affect your ability to pay. Your financial circumstances must be reviewed by the probation officer on at least an annual basis.

2. You must provide the probation officer access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The probation office may share financial information with the U.S. Attorney's Office.

4. You must apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation, at the discretion and direction of the Court.

5. You must not incur new credit charges, or open additional lines of credit, or apply for any loans without the prior approval of the probation officer. You must not borrow money or take personal loans from any individual without the prior approval of the probation officer.

6. You may change your residence only with the advance approval of the probation officer. You must appear in person at the state registration agency within three business days after the change of residence to report such change.

7. You must participate in a sex offense-specific assessment and any recommended treatment program, and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, and intensity). Your legitimate invocation of the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination in response to a treatment provider's question shall not be considered a violation of this condition.

8. You must participate in visual response testing as part of the required participation in a sex offense-specific assessment and/or treatment.

9. You must submit to periodic polygraph testing at the direction of the probation officer as a means to ensure that you are in compliance with the requirements of your supervision or treatment program. A maximum of six polygraph tests per year is allowed, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Your supervision may not be revoked based solely upon the results of a polygraph test. Your legitimate invocation of the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination in response to a polygrapher's question shall not be considered a violation of this condition.

10. You must not communicate, or otherwise interact, with MV1, either directly or through someone else, without first obtaining the permission of the probation officer.

11. You must not possess or view any materials such as videos, magazines, photographs, computer images or other matter that depicts "sexually explicit conduct" involving children as defined by 18 USC § 2256(2) and/or "actual sexually explicit conduct" involving adults as defined by 18 USC § 2257(h)(1), and not patronize any place where such materials or entertainment are the primary material or entertainment available.

12. You must allow the probation officer to install computer monitoring software on any computer you use as part of the Computer and Internet Monitoring Program (CIMP). A computer is defined as any device that can access sexually explicit conduct [as defined in 18 USC § 2256(2)]. You must comply with the rules and regulations of the CIMP, pursuant to the Participant's Agreement. You must pay the costs of the program, as directed by the probation officer. This condition shall not apply to items used at your employment site that are maintained and monitored by the employer.

13. To ensure compliance with the computer monitoring condition, you must allow a probation officer to conduct initial and periodic unannounced searches and seizures of any computers subject to computer monitoring. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. These searches and seizures shall be conducted to determine whether the computer contains any prohibited data prior to installation of the monitoring software, whether the monitoring software is functioning effectively after its installation, and whether there have been attempts to circumvent the monitoring software after its installation. You must warn any other people who use these computers that the computers may be subject to searches and seizures pursuant to this condition. Any search and seizure will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner.

14. You must possess and/or use only those computers, screen user names, email accounts, social media accounts, messaging applications, and cloud storage accounts, as well as any passwords or passcodes for all such items listed, that have been disclosed to and approved by the probation officer at the start of supervision. A computer is defined as any device that can access sexually explicit conduct [as defined in 18 USC § 2256(2)]. You must submit to the probation officer, upon request, any cellular or telephone/internet service provider records or receipts, to verify that you are not utilizing services that are prohibited. Any new computers, accounts, applications, passwords, or passcodes must be disclosed to and approved by the probation officer prior to the first use. Any computer that is not able to be effectively monitored will not be approved for use by the probation officer.

15. You must submit your person, property, house, residence, office, vehicle, papers, computers [defined as any device that can access sexually explicit conduct (as defined in 18 USC § 2256(2)], other electronic communications, storage devices, media, and peripheral equipment to a search and seizure conducted by a probation officer. Failure to submit to a search and seizure may be grounds for revocation of release. The probation officer may conduct a search and seizure under this condition only when reasonable suspicion exists that you have violated a condition of supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation. Any search and seizure must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. You must warn other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches and seizures pursuant to this condition.
